LeSEA GLOBAL Feed the Hungry Responds to Hurricane Katrina Desperate Hurricane Katrina victims need you!

FEED THE HUNGRY (FTH) has already delivered over 450 pallets of emergency aid or 19 semi-trailers worth of ready-to-eat meals, water and other aid items. Our first truckload arrived within 48 hours of the disaster and was one of the first supplies to reach the devastated Baton Rouge area.

FTH DIRECTOR Stefan Radelich commented, "We are supporting over 50 shelters in the New Orleans area and others in Mississippi; while in Baton Rouge, the Red Cross are speaking to us daily requesting food for their shelters."

According to news reports, thousands are dead and tens of thousands of homes and businesses have been damaged beyond repair in the region. More than 78,000 people have been displaced to emergency shelters. Many have no homes left.

Hundreds of tons of food and aid need to be sent to help support people in temporary shelters throughout the area. FTH is working with local churches in Louisiana, Mississippi & Alabama. FTH will also assist local churches in Texas that have volunteered to house displaced people.

A local trucking company has donated the use of their semi-trailers for Hurricane Katrina Relief, We just need to cover the fuel costs. That means for every donation of $1000 we can send a semi-trailer down, filled to capacity with 23,000kg of desperately needed food and aid.

We need your help. Please pray and send your support now.
Every gift, every donation makes a difference.
