

Born-Again Burundi President

Leads redemption of his nation

With free primary school education

August 2008

Dear friend,

President Pierre Nkurunziza of Burundi and his First Lady share a great love towards their countrymen, surpassed only by their love and great faith towards God. The FTH team were privileged recently to be invited to attend a Sunday worship service held in his very home.

This former rebel soldier now born-again President, led his cabinet and invited guests through a worship service dedicated in thankfulness for the great things God brought to Burundi.

Stefan Radelich (FTH International Director) remarked, "What a great blessing to see him sing along with his favourite song, Hillsong's My Redeemer – dancing with unrestrained joy." He was accompanied by a choir of former freedom fighters. These dedicated and loyal soldiers who once refused to abandon him - despite being shot and left for dead in the bush by his enemies.

This was followed by times of intercession, for the future of their nation. One change President Nkurunziza has already implemented is the provision of free public education for primary school children, extremely rare in Africa. This has created a flood of new primary students in school, children who otherwise would be unable to attend school because of poverty.

Education is an important step in the rehabilitation of this nation, however without a regular lunch program at the schools the change will be unsustainable. With your help, we will rush over 1.5 million meals to our partner ministry, African Revival Mission. They have long been committed to Burundi and are pleading with us to provide food for their children's school outreach program.

There are many reports detailing the astronomical increase in basic food prices across the world. It is literally becoming impossible for the poor to buy food, even when it's readily available. With food prices skyrocketing, the need is incredibly urgent.

Please prayerfully consider supporting President Nkurunziza and the African Revival Mission as we partner together to lead the nation out of darkness and into His glorious light.

MYANMAR CATASTROPHE UPDATE

FTH Food Distributions: Whatever It Takes!

Thanks to the generous response of partners and friends of FTH, we have already raised enough funds to build half of the required homes for survivors of the Myanmar catastrophe. You can see pictures of completed homes and read testimonies from the grateful families at our website. For more information and for the latest updates please visit the news section of our website.

We are still accepting Myanmar Disaster Relief donations to help complete the homes for those families identified by our relief partners on the ground, simply mark your donation as MYANMAR when making a donation.
