

What can be worse than remembering
The agony of chronic hunger?
Facing the thought of going back there!

December 2008

Dear friend,

Feed The Hungry, with your support, had the joy of taking life-saving food – tonnes of food – into Swaziland earlier this year. Unfortunately, as you read these words, that food has nearly run out. The 5,750 children who depend on us for their 'daily bread' are facing the prospect of hunger once again.

In this heartbreaking land, with the lowest life expectancy of any country on earth, you and I have shared the hope and joy of the Gospel with thousands of children and innumerable adults... "feeding spirit, soul, and body" as we often say. Easing the untold suffering. Saving countless lives. Giving hope.

But now they need us again. The children of Swaziland urgently need an infusion of nutritious meals. And by God's grace, we have the food available: 84 tonnes of food.

We only need to cover the cost of shipping the food to Africa and transporting it into the landlocked nation of Swaziland. I'm writing today to ask you for a generous gift of love – a gift of $25, or $50 or maybe $75 or more – to help us rush this urgently needed food to children in Africa.

Every $100 given today will deliver $375 worth of food. A gift of $50 provides $187.50 in food. Whatever God leads you to give today, it will instantly multiply by 3.75 times! And since we ship the food dehydrated, for maximum cost-efficiency, the volume of food triples again when it's cooked!

Our staff will carefully pack 4 enormous sea-transport containers by hand to use every possible square inch of space. Well over a million individual servings altogether of:

Corn, corn meal, dried beans and fruit, rice, canned vegetables, dehydrated soup, plus multi-vitamins for women and children, seed for planting, and shoes... some $165,000 worth of cargo – plus more than 1000 bibles to spread the word to hungry souls!

We've got to act fast, before their current supply of food runs out.

When you do, more than 230 children at Emmanuel Bible Church, most of them aged under 10, will celebrate your compassion this Christmas.

At Hope House in Motjani, the only place where food is reliably available to many children of the area (most are orphaned because of AIDS), they'll rejoice to receive this new supply of life-giving food because of your kindness.

At every place where God has graciously opened the door for Feed the Hungry, your gift of Christlike love has made an impact - suffering has eased, the Good News shared, and lives changed for the better!

Let me strongly urge you to use the enclosed reply form to send your most generous possible gift – or give online at www.feedthehungryaustralia.org to put your contribution to work right away.

Whatever you do, please take action today. We would appreciate hearing from you quickly. Thank you so much. God bless you.

Serving the hungry,

Peter Sumrall
